Lewis; married 1882. The following goes with the photograph on the left: FOR THE FIRST FIVE MONTHS OF HER LIFE THIS WOMAN, PENELOPE, WAS A SLAVE, belonging to Dr. Crawford E. Smith of Napton. Then September 26, 1863 – almost 100 years ago – a certificate of freedom was issued to her under President Lincoln's Emancipation proclamation. That certificate, now framed and under glass for preservation, is the property of the Rev. Richard A. Lewis, 473 West Marion. When the girl Penelope was 19 she married William Lewis and they lived many years at Pennytown. She became widely known as Aunt Penny Lewis in her old years. She died in 1958 at 95 years of age in the home of her son, Ed Lewis at Sedalia.
