History:

Williamson Guyer of Kentucky and his wife came to Missouri in the 1840's and entered several hundred acres of land in Cooper County, Mo. There, they spent the remainder of their lives and died there and were buried on the farm. This burial plot, known as the Guyer Family Cemetery is the resting place for other members of the Guyer Families, also.

This list recorded by Mr. Roy Smith.

The following information has been provided by John Russell

Williamson Guyer was my Grandmother's Great Great Grandfather and a good portion of this information is from her. Williamson also died intestate and I have the papers on that confirming the information I have from my Grandmother.
