account increased to $1,044.00 and $21.00 in checking. Several members asked to reserve burial plots. It was voted to let them choose their plots and record it on a numbered plot map. The members asking to reserve a plot were Betty Wisdom Summers, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Adair, Mr. and Mrs. Pick Gaston and Mr. and Mrs. Hayden Bottoms. Also, some monuments were repaired at a cost of $65 and the directors are planning to repair the building. Officers elected were Walter Dungan, President; Jim Kirschman, Vice President; Nora Renfrow, Secretary and Mary Lewis Adair as Treasurer. Hugh Kirschman, Hayden Bottoms and Roger Dungan were elected directors.

In 1977, a memorial for Allen Johnson was named in the amount of $1,000. By 1978, the total assets of the Providence Cemetery including interest on certificates of deposit totaled $5,819.16.

David Adair installed the roof in 1985 and Hugh and Glen Kirschman cleaned up the area following the installation. William E. Adair, James R. Wright and Mabel Hornbeck were buried in 1985.

In 1986, the Wisdom Family set up a trust fund and Providence Cemetery will receive interest from this fund. Robert Wisdom and Betty Summers are trustees for the Wisdom Family. Sterling Fain has been the caretaker since 1956 and was again asked to continue the job. Paul Clay Wisdom was buried in 1986.

In 1987, any member wanting to reserve a plot was asked to go ahead and have a marker put up. Sterling Fain was retained as caretaker with help from Robert Dungan, Jr. as needed.

In 1988, Robert Dungan, Jr. volunteered to clean up the area around the outhouse. Raymond L. Adair and Robert L. Dungan were buried.

And in 1989, Robert Dungan, Jr. was retained as caretaker. Wayne Lucas was buried in 1989.

September 9, 1990, the meeting was held with 36 members present. Gary Alpers has been retained for mowing the cemetery and will mow again for the summer of 1991 at a rate of $50 per mowing. Officers elected were President--Walter Dungan; Vice President--Jim Kirschman; Secretary--Renea Adair Sapp, and Treasurer--Chanda Adair Widel.

In 1991, it was voted to have plot copies sent to the officers and directors. Hugh Kirschman will try to keep a current plot map available to interested parties as he has in the past.

In 1992, Ginny Adair painted the grounds building.

In 1993, there were two burials, Walter L. Dungan and Truman Dungan. Walter served continuously as President since 1969 for a total of 24 years. David Adair was elected President. Leroy F. McDaniel was elected Vice-President, Secretary--Renea Adair Sapp and Treasurer--Chanda Adair Widel. The directors are Hugh Kirschman, 3 yrs; Jim Warmbrodt, 2 yrs; and Robert Dungan, 1 yr.

In 1994, there was discussion about contacting Shirley Lucas regarding a permanent grave marker for Wayne Lucas. Also, the board of directors were to decide whether to renew or change the certificates of deposit coming due in July 1995. Possibly, put $10,000 to a 5 year Certificate of Deposit and the balance to 1 year certificates.

On September 10, 1995, the certificates of deposit totaled $14,000, with the balance of the funds held in passbook savings and checking account to pay for maintenance. Linda Dungan Imhoff volunteered to create a mailing list on computer disk so a letter could be sent each year to descendants inviting them to the annual meeting and also, asking for contributions to continue to build up the perpetual fund. Russell Lee and Wilda Adair offered to post a new sign on the cemetery gate with the name and address to send contributions towards maintenance. Roy Edward Schultz was buried in 1995.

In 1996, Linda Dungan Imhoff donated her time and postage for mailing 75 letters to descendants asking for additional contributions to build up the perpetual fund. This mailing brought in several hundred dollars as it was sent to several people that live out of state. Officers were retained again for another term. Mary Lewis Adair was buried in 1996.

In 1997, there again was some discussion about obtaining a permanent marker for the grave of Wayne Lucas. Linda Dungan Imhoff contacted the Veterans Administration and obtained the necessary papers to request a marker for Wayne Lucas, however will need some information from Shirley Lucas. The Veterans Administration will provide a bronze foot stone at no cost, but we will need to pay for installing the marker at the grave site. Mrs. Frances Bottoms Smothers offered to speak to Mrs. Lucas to obtain the necessary information.

Blanch Adair Young was buried in 1997.

September 1998 to September 2017 : in 1998, a mailing list of family members with descendants of Providence Cemetery was created and the first mass mailing was sent out to approximately 75 people asking for contributions towards upkeep of the cemetery.

Stone markers were erected for Helen Adair and for Wayne Lucas. Expansion of the cemetery was discussed and it was decided to obtain copies of the Deed which shows the additional land on the Jim Kirschman farm is part of the cemetery. Copies of the Deed are held in the cemetery records.

In 2000, some stones were straightened and repaired. It was voted to purchase paint and paint the small storage building. Ginnie and David Adair volunteered to paint and repair the building.

In 2002, it was voted to spend $1,000 towards erecting markers on some unmarked graves. We were able to mark 35 graves that were either unreadable or did not have a stone according to the plat map. Letters were sent to area funeral directors asking them to contact an officer or director to obtain a site from the plat map when requesting a burial.

In 2011, a new chain link fence was installed around the cemetery along with two new gates and a sign. The old caretaker's shed was torn down and a new shelter house erected in its place on a concrete pad in 2015. Ginny Adair refinished the old table from the caretaker's building to use in the new shelter house.

Wade Sanders prepared a digital record of the cemetery and plat map for future reference and it has been compared to the original plat map.

Note: This history was compiled by Linda Dungan Imhoff from the old minutes of previous meetings.
